VEER IT
SOLUTIONS

Human Resources Manual

Table of Contents

1. Company Name …….

1.1 Introduction
1.2 Management Philosophy
1.3 Business Ethics and conducts
1.4 Policy and Procedure Manual
1.5 Our Vision
1.6 Our Mission

2. The Employment …….……..

2.1 Employee Relations
2.2 Recruitment Policy
2.3 Selection Procedure
2.4 Induction Process
2.5 Work Related issue
2.6 Suggestions
2.7 Discipline and Code of Conduct
2.8 Hiring of Relatives

3. Employment Status and Records ……..……..

3.1 Probation Period
3.2 Access to Personal Files
3.3 Personnel Data Change
3.4 Employment Applications

4. Pay Roll ……..

4.1 Pay Slip Distribution
4.2 Payroll Advance
4.3 Deductions
4.4 Error in Pay

5. Employment Termination

6. Employee Welfare ……...…….

6.1 Group Insurance (Medical & Accident)
6.2 Employee's Provident Fund
6.3 Gratuity

7. Work Conditions and Hours……...

7.1 Work Schedule
7.2 Attendance
7.3 Late Arrival
7.4 Dress Code
7.5 Personal Communications
7.6 Internet
7.7 Meal Period
7.8 Parking
7.9 Emergency Closing
7.10 Return of Property
7.11 Professional Development

8. Harassment ……

8.1 Policy Statement
8.2 Some common examples of Harassment
8.3 Abuse of Managerial Authority

9. Health, Safety & Environment ……...……..

9.1 Policy Statement
9.2 Smoking
9.3 Alcohol, Drugs & Other Substance of Abuse

10. Performance Management System …….

10.1 Introduction
10.2 Performance Management Philosophy
10.3 Performance Appraisal Review System
10.4 Process of Performance Appraisal and Increment
10.5 Bonus Scheme(s)

11. Promotion Policy…….

12. Confidential Information and Intellectual Property

12.1 Confidential Information
12.2 Intellectual Property
12.3 IT Information Storage and Security

13. Conflict of Interest ……...…….

13.1 Policy
13.2 Procedure

14. Privacy …….

15. Sign Off…….

Welcome to Veer IT Solutions Private Limited.

On behalf of the Top Management of Veer IT Solutions Private Limited, I welcome you to the organization. As you begin your career with us, we wish you success and a rewarding professional journey.

At Veer IT Solutions, we believe every employee contributes directly to the growth and success of the Company. This Manual describes key expectations, policies, programs and benefits available to eligible employees. Employees are encouraged to become familiar with the contents of the Veer IT HR Manual and seek guidance from HR whenever required.

We believe professional relationships are strengthened when employees understand our culture and values. This guide is intended to help employees understand the Company's expectations, culture and approach to professional development.

We hope your experience here will be challenging, enjoyable and rewarding.

Regards,
Management Team

(Chief Executive Officer)
Veer IT Solutions Private Limited

1. Veer IT Solutions Private Limited

1.1 Introduction

Veer IT Solutions Private Limited was established in 2018 and is headquartered at 4th Floor, Veer IT Tech Park, Plot No. 18, Software Nagar, Madhapur, Hyderabad, Telangana 500081, India. The automation, analytics and operational efficiency. Its services include software engineering, cloud solutions, data platforms and digital transformation support.

The Company is committed to responsible growth, strong customer relationships and practical technology solutions. Veer IT Solutions operates with a focus on service quality, employee development, innovation and ethical business practices.

1.2 Management Philosophy

Veer IT's management philosophy is based on responsibility and mutual respect. People who join Veer IT are encouraged to contribute ideas, collaborate across teams and take ownership of their work. Veer IT aims to be a trusted technology solutions provider, with a strong focus on customer service and delivery quality.

To help achieve this objective, Veer IT seeks highly motivated individuals who believe in teamwork and share the commitment, responsibility, risk-taking and discipline required to achieve the Company's vision. A culture that promotes practical thinking, collaboration and a global perspective is maintained throughout the organization.

While the Company is realistic in setting goals and expectations, it is ambitious in reaching its objectives. This success enables Veer IT to provide competitive compensation, benefits and development opportunities while maintaining a strong position in the technology services market.

1.3 Business Ethics and Conduct

The successful business operation and reputation of Veer IT are built upon the principles of fair dealing and ethical conduct by employees and contractors. The Company expects careful observance of applicable laws and regulations, together with high standards of conduct, integrity and personal responsibility.

The continued success of Veer IT is dependent upon our customer's trust and we are dedicated towards preserving that trust. Employees owe a duty towards Veer IT and towards their customers to act in a way that will merit the continued trust and confidence of the public.

Veer IT complies with all applicable laws of the land and regulations and expects its Directors, Managers, Executives and all other employees to conduct business in accordance with the letter, spirit, and intent of all the relevant laws and to refrain from any illegal, dishonest, or unethical conduct.

In general, the use of good judgment, based on high ethical principles, guides an individual with respect to the lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter is discussed openly with the immediate Head of the Department and, if necessary, with the Directors, for advice and consultation.

Compliance with this policy of business ethics and conduct is the responsibility of every Veer IT employee.

Disregarding or failing to comply with this standard of business ethics and conduct could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including the possibility of possible termination of employment.

1.4 Policy & Procedures Manual

The Veer IT India Human Resources Manual (the "HR Manual") has been developed to facilitate the implementation and clearly define Veer IT 's policies on Human Resource Management.

The HR Manual provides guidelines to be followed in the administration of these policies, and assists all the employees in defining each Human Resource Management decision and the correct procedure to be followed.

The policies specified herein consists those of the best management principle practices. They have the full support and commitment of Veer IT 's Management.

HR policies must be kept current and relevant. Therefore, from time to time some of the policies, practices and procedures may undergo necessary modifications or amendments as well as new ones may be added. The policy descriptions, practices, procedures and responsibilities contained in this Manual will take effect immediately and supersede all other previous policies, procedures and bulletins as applicable to Veer IT India.

These policies and procedures are applicable to all areas of operations within Veer IT Solutions Private Limit Veer IT Solutions Private Limited and its related entities.

1.5 Our Vision

Our Vision is to provide the most technically advanced email marketing platform in the world coupled with unsurpassed customer service and support.

1.6 Our Mission

"To treat every customer like they are the only one"

2. The Employment

2.1 Employee Relations

Veer IT believes that the working conditions, salary and benefits that it offers to its employees are the best in the industry. We demonstrate our commitment by responding effectively to employee's concerns.

2.2 Recruitment Policy

Human Resources symbolizes the main element of any organization recruiting and selecting people on the basis of their skill, ability, attitude and character.

While recruitment there is absolutely no discrimination on the ground of age, sex, colour, race, creed, national origin, religion, marital status, political belief or even a disability that does not prohibit performance of essential job functions.

Veer IT Recruitment System is based on the following:

a) External Recruitment System

∅ Advertisement published through job portals, consultancy and social networking websites etc.

b) Internal Recruitment System

∅ Other employee referrals.

2.3 Selection Procedure:

The following recruitment procedure is used for recruiting people based on the requirements from the different departments within Veer IT .

The first step in this process is that the job profile is decided by the HR Manager in consultation with the core committee members and top Management of Veer IT . An Interview Team is selected by the Director/ HR Manager for the recruitment of appropriate staff for filling the vacant position(s).

∅ Screening/ short listing of the candidates: Based on the particulars, qualifications and experience mentioned in the CV and as per the requirements of the post sought to be filled, the CV's of the candidates are short listed. After short listing the CVs, the candidates are called for the interview.

∅ Interview by the Core Committee of the short-listed candidates:

∅ The Core Committee consists of the HR Manager, Technical Manager, Department/ Team Head and the Director known as the Core Committee Members. The following stages of the Interview shall be undertaken by the concerned members of the Core Committee:

- Preliminary Interview by the HR Manager.
- Written test in technical skills & English (if required) by the Technical Manager.
- 2nd Interview by the concerned Department/ Team Head.
- Final Interview by the Director.

During the preliminary selection process, following a preliminary interview by the HR Manager, the candidates are asked to take the written examination of both technical skills & english in order to judge the required skills of the candidates for the post. The candidates who clear this test are further interviewed by the concerned Department/ Team Head.
The members comprising the interviewer team are provided with a set of evaluation sheet which the members fill while taking the interview and they give their feedback (score) on the different criteria and comments on the basic weakness & strengths of each candidate. As per the performance of each candidate in the written examination as well as in the personal interview with the Core Committee Members the list of further short-listed candidate(s) is prepared and submitted to the Director.

Prior to the final interview by the Director of the further short-listed candidate(s), the HR Department would take up the following pre-employment checks :

∅ De-dupe with internal customer database (to check for any default)
∅ De-dupe with internal negative database (to check for any past history of being interviewed by the Company)

Once the results of the above checks are satisfactory, final interview shall is taken by the Director and the negotiation for the salary is done during the time of the interview. The evaluation sheets along with the recommendations of the HR Manager are forwarded to the CEO for final approval and the result is declared within a week. Post approval of this sheet the offered compensation and grade will be communicated to the selected candidate.

Appointment Procedure: Appointment Letter is issued and sent to the selected candidate via email. The Appointment Letter contains the following: a) The Roles and Responsibilities to be undertaken by the selected candidate. b) Designation c) Scale d) Grade e) Period of Probation f) The date and time of execution of the agreement of employment "the Employment Agreement" between Veer IT and the selected candidate. Last but not the least the testimonials are also checked as a part of appointment procedure.

On the said date and time, the Employment Agreement is executed. The Company reserve the right to be the sole judge of the meaning and interpretation of all or any of such terms and conditions contained in the Employment Agreement and its decision thereon shall be binding on all employees.

Joining Date: The first day an employee reports to work is his "official" Joining Date. The Joining Date is used to compute various conditions and welfare measures described in this HR Manual. On the Joining Date, the selected candidate shall be asked to complete employment related paperwork including submission of the copies of the following documents to the HR Department :

- ∅ Duly attested educational and other qualification certificates;
- ∅ Release letter from the previous employer (if applicable);
- ∅ If previously employed, salary slips for last 3 (three) months*
- ∅ Photocopy of PAN Card (if applicable);
- ∅ Photocopy of Aadhar Card;
- ∅ PF Account No. (in case employee has any previous PF account);
- ∅ 2 (two) recent passport size-colored photographs & 1 (one) digital passport size photograph e-mailed.

Salary slips are required to verify the previous salary and obtain necessary information pertaining to PF, ESI, etc.*

2.4 Induction Process

∅ Policy Statement

An effective induction ensures a positive start in any organization. It is also an ideal time to identify any personal development needed for the employee to become efficient in the job as quickly as possible. It should be tailored to the needs of a new recruit and the specific areas of responsibility that they will hold.

∅ Objective

The objective of the induction policy is to familiarize the employee with the Company, their job responsibilities, colleagues, office systems, processes and policies with a view to ensure that they start contributing to business outcomes as quickly as possible.

The induction should be a combination of standard components as well as tailor made learning of the role.

∅ Process

- Introduction to the Company, its culture and procedures
- Dress code and etiquettes
- Introduction with fellow colleagues, superiors and senior executives
- Familiarization with the office lay-out
- Assistance in understanding technical aspects
- On floor

The employee is free to ask any questions not clarified during his/ her induction orientation.

2.5 Work related issues:

Veer IT encourages you to discuss any difference you may have with a colleague, directly with that person. However, the concerned employee may approach the following procedure to resolve the issue:

Procedure:

∅ When an employee faces any problem related to his/her professional concern, he/she has to report it to his/her immediate superior/Manager. Such immediate superior/Manager is expected to give reply or find the solution to the problem within the time stipulated according to the gravity of the issue made.

∅ If the matter is not settled or if the settlement made by immediate superior/Manager is not acceptable to the concerned employee, then the employee can directly contact the HR Manager either by submitting a written application in person or via mail.

Any information/issues discussed by employee with to his/ her immediate superior/ Manager or HR Manager are considered confidential.

2.6 Suggestions

Veer IT encourages all employees to put forth their suggestions and ideas to make it a better place to work. Suggestions are also welcome to improve products, and enhance our service to customers. When an employee sees an opportunity for improvement, he/ she get in touch with his/ her Team Head or HOD so as to bring such idea to the attention of the Management. If the idea is found meritorious, special recognition is provided to the employee(s) who gave the idea in the first place.

2.7 Discipline and code of conduct

In any social system, irrespective of its nature, it is important to determine a set of rules that will regulate the conduct of its members and which should be observed in order to function successfully. By accepting employment with Veer IT , an employee has a responsibility to the Company and to his/ her fellow employees to adhere to certain rules of behavior and conduct. The purpose of these rules is not to restrict an employee's rights, but rather to be certain that an employee understands what conduct is expected and necessary. The disciplinary procedure is regarded as a guideline and its interpretation is adequately flexible in order to adjust to various circumstances.

Veer IT follows its own Disciplinary rules and code of Conduct and no one is allowed to abuse the system while they are on duty. If any employee is found violating the system, then he/she shall be liable for disciplinary action:

1. The normal work week of the Company consists of five (5) days with nine (9) hours of work/shift each day with one (1) hour lunch break included. Owing to the nature of work and activities, employees' working hours shall be different depending upon the shift in which he/ she is working. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in beginning and closing times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week. Development department has been given some flexibility on this as they are working all the time. There is a weekly off on Saturdays and Sundays but some profiles are expected to work on week-off days. Management expects the employees to maintain punctuality.

2. Employees can receive their personal calls but it should not disturb the others who are present in the Company. Management will not tolerate any misuse of the facility provided or wasting time on it which is otherwise purely meant for official work. Employees are not allowed to waste productive time on personal phone calls for longer duration.

3. Employees should keep their cell/ mobile phones on vibration mode while they are on duty.

4. No employees will use organization's telephone and fax facilities for private purposes except with prior permission from his/ her reporting authority/ Manager. However, in case of emergency, such use is permitted.

5. Management will not tolerate if any employee is found smoking cigarettes, drinking alcohol or spitting in the Office Premises or indulging in any such activities. Strict disciplinary action shall be taken against such employee by the Management.

6. No one is allowed to maintain secrecy in user name and password, if they are using a different password other than the password provided by the IT Department/ HR Department, then the concerned employee is required to share it with the HR.

7. Negligence of work by any employee shall not be tolerated by the Management. Management shall render an employee liable for disciplinary action.

8. No employee shall share confidential information about Veer IT with any person whosoever except in the interest of Veer IT work or with written permission of the Director.

9. No employee shall disclose or discuss about his/ her salary, increments and other aspects of remuneration with any employee, other than the Management and/ or the HR Department of Veer IT during the course of employment with the Company.

10. Every employee shall be provided with an employee ID card. It is mandatory for the employee to carry/ wear the ID card while they are on duty at the Company.

11. Organizational conflicts should be raised and resolved within the organizational procedures. The issues of conflict should not be discussed with other organizations/news/media without prior approval of the Director.

12. No employee shall engage in any act of omission or commission which may directly or indirectly violate or discredits the policies of the Company or leads to creation of a toxic or unhealthy work environment, thereby impacting the productivity, reputation or credibility of the Company.

Each employee of Veer IT carries out the instructions given to them by the Management or his superiors or reporting managers, in connection with the organization diligently and faithfully.

Insubordination or refusing to obey instructions properly issued by the Management, superior or reporting manager pertaining to official work or refusal to help out on a special assignment, shall not be tolerated.

2.8 Hiring of relatives

Objective

Veer IT 's recruitment philosophy is hiring purely on merit. There is not restriction on hiring of relatives till such time it does not create a potential conflict of interest. To ensure that there is no conflict of interest, and to reduce the possibility of favoritism or appearance of favoritism, the following guidelines must be followed:

∅No one is assigned to a position where he/she has the opportunity to check, process, review, approve, audit or otherwise affect the work of the other related employee.
∅No one is assigned to a position where he/she can influence/ decide the salary progress or promotion of the related employee.

In case any employee knows of a situation that appears to be an opportunity for one employee to show favoritism to his/her relative, he/she should contact the HR.
Example of relatives, for the sake of understanding is Parents/ In-laws, Spouse, Children, Siblings etc. However, the list is not limited to relations defined above.

Process

The HR department maintains data on related employees and updates is on a monthly basis. This list is to be reviewed by HR Department on a quarterly basis. All new hirees must declare on the Joining Date, if they have any relatives working with Veer IT to the best of their knowledge.

3. Employment Status and Records

3.1 Probation Period

The first 6 (six) months of employment are probationary. This Probation Period is a "getting acquainted" time for both an employee, and the Company as an employer. During this Probation Period, the Company will evaluate your suitability for employment, and you can evaluate the Company as well. This Probation Period will be a time for getting to know fellow employees, Head of Department/ Team Head, seniors, reporting Manager, etc. and the tasks involved in his/ her job position, as well as becoming familiar with the organization's activities. This also provides Company an opportunity to assess skill levels and address areas of potential concern. However, completion of the Probation Period does not guarantee a permanent employment. Based on the employee's performance and conduct, this period may be increased or decreased at sole discretion of the Management; Probation shall be considered complete only when confirmed in writing to the employee.

During the Probation Period, the Company may choose to terminate the employment at any time and for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause, as per the terms and conditions of an employee's Employment Agreement. However, the Company shall pay all the dues till last working day of such employee.

If the employee wishes to discontinue the services with the Company during Probation Period, he/she can leave the Company without any prior notice and the Company will pay the dues till last day of working of such employee in the Company.

At the completion of the Probation Period, the employee and employer shall meet and review progress to date. At this time one of three things will occur:

i. Probation will end and the employee shall get confirmed
ii. Probation may be extended for an additional three months
iii. Employment will end

3.2 Access to Personal Files

Veer IT maintains a personal file on each employee. The personal file includes such information as the employee's job application, resume, record of training, documentation of performance appraisal and salary increases, and other employment record.

Personal files are the property of Veer IT , and access to the information they contain is restricted. Generally, only HR Department personnel have access to these files.

3.3 Personal Data Change

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify the Company of any changes in personal data. Personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers and name of the dependents, individuals to be contacted in case of emergency, educational accomplishments, and other such status reports should be accurate and current, at all times during the person's employment with Veer IT . If any personal data has changed, the concerned employee should notify the HR Department.

3.4 Employment Applications

Veer IT relies upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application, as well as the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentation, falsification, or material omissions in any of these information or data may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

4. Pay Roll

4.1 Pay Slip Distribution

Pay cheque will be deposited by the Human Resource Department/ Accounts Department in the savings account of each employee in the first week of each month. It is mandatory for each and every incumbent to open an account in such Bank, where Veer IT has a corporate salary account. In no case will the payment be made through cheque or in cash.

Pay slip of each employee will be distributed by HR Department in the first week of the month.

4.2 Payroll Advance

In emergency situations, the Company may grant a salary advance/ loan. For availing this facility, the concerned employee should contact his/ her Head of Department/ HR Department for further clarification.

It is binding on each employee to maintain confidentiality on all the information related to their compensation, as per the Company policy.

4.3 Deductions

The Company will make statutory deductions like Provident Fund, ESI, etc. concerning employment law compliances and Income Tax at source from an employee's salary every month, as per the requirement of the applicable laws of India.

4.4 Error in Pay

Every effort is made to avoid errors in the pay cheque. If an employee believes that an error occurred while computing his/ her pay, the Accounts Department is to be contacted by such an employee immediately. Necessary steps will be initiated to identify the problem and to assure that any necessary correction is made promptly.

5. Employment Termination

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity with any organization, and many of the reasons for termination are in routine. Below are examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated.

Termination for Cause

An Employment Agreement may be terminated by the Employer at any time for cause, without notice or payment in lieu of notice or severance pay whatsoever, except payment of outstanding wages and overtime to the date of termination. Cause includes, but are not limited to, breach of any term of the Employment Agreement, any act of dishonesty, conflict of interest, breach of confidentiality (as per Clause 12.1 of this HR Manual), harassment, insubordination, or careless, negligent or documented poor work performance.

- Resignation—voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee. After completion of the 6 (six) months of the Probationary Period, employee must give the Employer 60 days' notice of resignation.
- Discharge—involuntary employment termination initiated by an employer by giving 60 days salary in lieu of written notice to the employee.

- Lay off—involuntary employment termination by the organization for non-disciplinary reason by giving [one] month's salary in lieu of written notice.
- Retirement—voluntary employment termination initiated by the employee on meeting age or length of service or any other criteria for retirement from the Company.

An employee, who wishes to leave the services of the Company, has to submit a resignation letter as stipulated in his/ her Appointment Letter, to his/ her reporting manager with a copy of the same to the HR Department for commencement of stipulated notice period of 60 days.

6. Employee Welfare

6.1 Group Insurance (Medical & Accident)

The Company is dedicated to the health and well-being of both the employee and its family. A comprehensive, quality insurance program is available to a full-time employee who meet the eligibility requirements for each particular benefit. Veer IT will periodically review the insurance program and will make modifications as appropriate to the Company's condition and reserves the right to modify, add or delete the insurance it offers. An employee can either opt for the Insurance Policy or decide otherwise.

The entire cost of the premium for the Group Insurance coverage shall be borne by the Company.

6.2 Employee's Provident Fund

All employees who are drawing basic pay less than INR 15,000/- per month are covered under the Employee Provident Fund Act, 1952. Both the employee and the Company will contribute in equal percentage to the concerned employee's Provident Fund Account.

6.3 Gratuity

The Payment of Gratuity Act,1972 envisages to provide retirement benefit to the employees who have rendered long and unblemished service to the organization, and worked for the prosperity of the organization.

All the employees appointed by the Company on regular rolls and having valid Employment Agreement are entitled to receive Gratuity after rendering continuous service for 5 (five) years or more.

However, this will not include:

∅ Employees who have attained age of 58 years and above.
∅ Trainees (i.e., those who have been appointed for the purpose of training only)
∅ Persons appointed on contract basis.

∅ Consultants or Advisors (i.e., who are hired on Professional charges basis.)

7. Work Conditions and Hours

7.1 Work Schedule

The normal work schedule for all the employees are 9 hours (including 1 hour lunch break) per day, i.e., Monday to Friday. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in beginning and closing times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week. Work schedule should be maintained by Managers and should be applicable as per working structure of the Company. For any work put in by an employee beyond the prescribed 9 hours, such employee shall be entitled to receive payment for an amount equivalent to their per hour salary.

7.2 Attendance

All employees are responsible for marking their attendance electronically at the time of entering the work place. In the event of an error in marking of attendance, employee must report the matter to the reporting Manager/ HR immediately. Unauthorized absence from office, or absence from office without prior approval from the reporting manager/ HR, will be recorded as misconduct in the employee's file. Unauthorized absence will be treated as Loss of Pay (LOP).

7.3 Late arrival

Employees are expected to arrive at work and for meetings on time. If an employee anticipates late arrival, he/she must inform the reporting Manager in advance i.e. atleast 30 minutes prior to the commencement of his/ her work shift, to allow for schedule changes and to handle coverage of working hours. Repeat challenges with late arrivals will be recorded as misconduct in the employee's file. All employees working with customers must ensure that all meeting commitments are met on time. Lapses in punctuality will not be acceptable.

7.4 Dress Code

The choice of attire is of personal discretion. But every employee here bears the responsibility of representing the Company in a positive way. A positive and professional look sheds heavy weight on the Company's image as well as the colleagues. As a minimum standard, dress should be clean, neat and professionally appropriate.

7.5 Personal Communications

∅ Phone Calls

The making and receiving of personal phone calls must be limited in a day and should not disturb the normal work environment.

∅ Email

Email has legal status as a document and is accepted as evidence in a court of law. Even when it is used for private purposes, Veer IT can be held responsible for the contents of email messages, including any attachments. Access to emails can be demanded as part of legal action in some circumstances.

It is therefore important that email is used within the following guidelines:

a. Email should mainly be used for formal business correspondence and care should be taken to maintain the confidentiality of sensitive information. Formal memos, documents and letters for which signatures are important, should be issued on Company letterhead regardless of whether a physical or electronic delivery method is used.

b. If electronic messages need to be preserved, they should be printed out and filed.

c. Limited private use of email is permitted, provided that same does not interfere with or distract from an employee's work. However, Management has the right to access incoming and outgoing email messages to determine whether staff usage or involvement is excessive or inappropriate.

d. Non-essential email, including personal messages, should be deleted regularly from the 'Sent Items', 'Inbox' and 'Deleted Items' folders to avoid congestion.

e. All emails sent should include the approved Company disclaimer.

In order to protect Veer IT the potential effects of the misuse and abuse of email, the following instructions are to be observed by all users.

a. No material is to be sent as email that is defamatory, in breach of copyright or business confidentiality, or prejudicial to the good standing of Veer IT the community or to its relationship with staff, Clients and any other person or business.

b. Email is not to contain material that amounts to gossip about colleagues or that could be offensive, demeaning, persistently irritating, threatening, and discriminatory, involves the harassment of others or concerns personal relationships.

c. The email records of other persons are not to be accessed except by Management (or persons authorized by Management) engaged in ensuring compliance with this policy, or by authorized staff who have been requested to attend to a fault, upgrade or similar situation. Access in each case will be limited to the minimum required to complete the task.

d. When using email, a person must not pretend to be another person or use another person's computer without permission.

e. Excessive private use, including mass mailing, "reply to all" etc. that are not part of the person's duties, is not permitted.

Failure to comply with these instructions is an offence and will be subjected to appropriate investigation. In serious cases, the penalty for an offence or repetition of an offence may include dismissal.

7.6 Internet

The Internet facility provided by Veer IT is mainly for business use. Access is authorized by managers on the basis of business needs. Limited private use is permitted provided the private use does not interfere with or distract a person's work. Veer IT reserves the right to access the system to determine whether private use is excessive or inappropriate.

In addtion, the following activities, using Veer IT 's Internet access are also not permitted:

a. Viewing, other than by accident, sites or emails displaying obscene, violent, defamatory and unlawful materials and materials that could cause Veer IT to be in breach of equal opportunity or anti-discrimination legislation, verbally or non- verbally.

b. Downloading or printing material as described above.

c. Showing others or allowing to be seen by others, items as described above.

d. Introducing computer viruses by failing to follow Company IT procedures

e. Downloading software from the Internet or from unauthorized disks and CD ROM's on to the internal network.

Failure to comply with these instructions is a disciplinary offence and will be subjected to appropriate investigation. In serious cases, the penalty for an offence, or repetition of an offence, may include dismissal.

7.7 Meal Period

All employees are provided with one meal period of 60 minutes in length on each work day. For the convenience and comfort of its employees, the Company has earmarked specific area in the office for lunch; this area is for everyone's use. It is the responsibility of everyone who works in the Company to do its share in keeping such area clean and tidy. It is important to return to work on time at the end of the meal period.

7.8 Parking

Employees must park their cars, motorcycles & cycles in areas indicated and provided by the Company.

7.9 Emergency Closing

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fire or power failures can disrupt Company operations. In extreme cases, these circumstances may require the closing of a work facility.

When operations are officially closed due to emergency conditions, the time off from scheduled work will not be considered as a leave for any employee.

7.10 Return of Property

Employees are responsible for all the Veer IT materials, or written information issued to them or in their possession or control. Employees must return all Veer IT property in their possession immediately upon termination of employment. Permitted by applicable law, Veer IT withhold employees pay slip or final pay slip, if any items that is not returned when required. Veer IT also take all necessary action deemed appropriate to recover or protect its property.

7.11 Professional Development

At the discretion of the Management, employees may be able to attend conferences, courses, seminars and meetings, identified through annual work plans and performance reviews, which may be beneficial to the employee's professional development. If these opportunities are directly related to the employee's position, or are suggested by the Management, then Veer IT may cover the cost of registration, course materials and some travel expenses. If Veer IT agreed to pay for a course fee, the same will be paid on evidence of successful completion of the said course. If Veer IT sponsors a course (or courses) and the employee departs Veer IT within a 1 (one) year of completion of course, the course fees will become repayable in full by the concerned employee or deducted from his moneys pending with the Company.

8. Harassment

8.1 Policy Statement

Harassment is any form of behavior that is unwelcome, unsolicited, unreciprocated and usually (but not always) repeated. It is the behavior that has the purpose or effect of violating an associate's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment, and in the perception of the recipient of the conduct, it should reasonably be considered as having that purpose or effect. It is the impact of the behavior on the person who is receiving it, together with the nature of behavior, which determines whether it is harassment or not.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted or uninvited behavior of a sexual nature which makes a person feel humiliated, intimidated or offended. It cannot be tolerated under any circumstances and is also unlawful. Sexual harassment can take many different forms and may include physical contact, verbal comments, jokes, propositions, display of offensive material or other behavior that creates a sexually tense or hostile working environment.

Harassment is not just unlawful during working hours or at the workplace itself, but also such behavior is unlawful in any work-related context including conferences, work functions, business or field trips, and interactions with clients.

Veer IT Solutions Private Limited is committed towards ensuring employees to be treated fairly and equally in an environment free of intimidation and any type of harassment including sexual harassment.

8.2 Some common examples of Harassment are:

- ∅ Telling insulting jokes about particular groups or genders.
- ∅ Displaying offensive posters or screen savers.
- ∅ Making derogatory comments about someone's race or religion.
- ∅ Offensive physical contact, derogatory language or intimidating actions.
- ∅ Using any kind of abusive language in the workplace.
- ∅ Insulting or threatening gestured or language (overt or implied) or continual and unwarranted shouting in the workplace.
- ∅ Unjustified and unnecessary comments about an associate's work or capacity for work.
- ∅ Openly displayed pictures, posters, graffiti or written materials which might be offensive to some.
- ∅ Phone calls or messages on electronic mail/ snail mail or computer networks which are threatening, abusive or offensive to associates.
- ∅ The exclusion of an associate or group from normal conversations, work assignments, work related social activates and networks in the workplace.

8.3 Abuse of Managerial Authority:

Abuse of managerial authority means conduct by a immediate superior/ reporting Manager in relation to an associate who reports to them or over whom they have supervisory authority and which:

∅ intimidates, humiliates or undermines another associate by belittling them, or

- ∅ excessively, destructively or inappropriately criticizes or reprimands them, or excessively scrutinizing their work, or
- ∅ makes demands that are unreasonable and/or outside that other associate's role; or
- ∅ makes demand to perform an action that is in breach of the principles of any policy

Veer IT encourages any employee who feels he/ she may have been harassed, to contact the HR Manager immediately. All complaints of harassment particularly sexual harassment are treated seriously and promptly, with due regard to confidentiality. They are investigated thoroughly and impartially. HR Manager must also act immediately on any reports of sexual harassment. Employees are not disadvantaged in their employment conditions or opportunities as a result of lodging a complaint.

Appropriate disciplinary action is taken against anyone in Veer IT 's employment who is found to have harassed/ sexually harassed a co-worker. Depending on the severity of the case, consequences can include an apology, transfer, dismissal, demotion or other forms of disciplinary action. Immediate disciplinary action is also taken against anyone who victimizes or retaliates against a person who has complained of such harassment.

Veer IT has a legal responsibility to prevent harassment. Therefore, HR Manager has a responsibility to:

- ∅ Monitor the working environment to ensure acceptable standards of conduct are observed at all times
- ∅ Model appropriate behavior himself or herself
- ∅ Treat all complaints seriously and take immediate action to investigate and resolve the matter.
- ∅ Refer complaints to another manager/ superior, if they do not feel they are the best person to deal with the case (e.g., if there is a conflict of interest or if the complaint is particularly complex or serious).

All employees have a responsibility to:

- ∅ Comply with the organization's harassment policy.
- ∅ Offer support to anyone who is being harassed and let them know from where they could get help and advice (they should not approach the harasser themselves).
- ∅ Maintain complete confidentiality if they provide information during the investigation of a complaint (employees who spread gossip or rumors may expose themselves to defamation action).

9. Health, Safety & Environment

9.1 Policy Statement

Veer IT is committed in providing and maintaining a safe work environment for health, safety and welfare of employees, visitors and members of the public who may be affected by our work. To do this, Veer IT will:

∅ Develop and maintain safe systems of work, and a safe working environment.

∅ Provide information and training at all levels in the organization to enable all employees to support this policy.

∅ Assess all the risks involved in new areas of operation, purchasing new equipment, and implementing new work methods and that these risks continue to be reviewed.

Everyone is responsible and will be held accountable for:

∅ Identifying practices and conditions which could injure fellow employees, clients, members of the public or our environment

∅ Implementing steps to control such situations

∅ If unable to control such practices and conditions reporting these to their immediate superiors/ Managers.

Veer IT demands a positive attitude and performance with respect to health, safety and the environment from all employees irrespective of their position.

9.2 Smoking

Veer IT employs a non-smoking policy. Smoking is not permitted on Veer IT property or offices at any time. Smoking is harmful to the health of those who smoke and those around them (passive smokers). Consequently, smoking while on Company premises is considered as a gross misconduct and will render an employee liable to instant dismissal.

9.3 Alcohol, Drugs & other substances of abuse

This policy is applicable to all levels at Veer IT . The policy is not concerned with social drinking or taking prescribed drugs for medical purposes. The concern is directed to instances where alcohol or other drug dependence or abuse affects the job performance and or/safety of any other employee or visitors in Veer IT office premises.

Veer IT is committed towards creating and maintaining a safe, healthy and productive workplace for all employees. Attending work under the influence of alcohol will never be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action or ultimately dismissal. Driving under the influence of alcohol or any other illicit drug is illegal. It is your own responsibility to ensure you comply with it.

10. Performance Management System

10.1 Introduction

At Veer IT we aim to be an employer of choice– one where people want to work. As a business we are committed to give all members of our team every opportunity to develop their careers, to contribute to our business and to share in its success.

The Performance Management System is designed to support the completion of the work of the organization. It also defines measures and recognizes the contribution of individuals to help the organization establish achievable goals for its entire people – it is a team based approach.

At any stage, if you have any questions or concerns you can raise them with your reporting manager.

10.2 Performance Management Philosophy

We believe that everyone who comes to work does want to utilize their potential and develop their relationships with others (Managers, colleagues and clients).

Work is characterized by feelings of satisfaction, frustration, opportunity, exasperation, stimulation, excitement and even feelings of fairness and dishonesty. To succeed and excel, we recognize people need to know what is expected of them, what authority they have and how they are performing. In addition to it the approach of managing them needs to be consistent.

If Veer IT can help its people feel more of the positive emotions and eliminate most of the negative, then we will have come a long way to being an employer of choice.

The Performance Management System is designed to be the foundation for fulfilling careers at Veer IT .

10.3 Performance Appraisal Review System

Performance appraisal is the process of obtaining, analyzing and recording information about the relative worth of an employee. The focus on the performance appraisal is to measure and improve the actual performance of the employee and also the future potential of the employee. Its main aim is to measure how efficiently an employee performs the duty assigned to him/her.

It is a powerful tool to reward performance of an employee. It helps to analyze the achievements and evaluate the contribution of employees towards the achievements of the overall organizational goals.

By focusing the attention on performance, performance appraisal goes to the heart of personnel management and reflects the Management's interest in the progress of the employee.

Objectives:

- ∅ To review the performance of the employee over a given period of time.
- ∅ To judge the gap between the actual and the desired performance.
- ∅ To help the Management in exercising organizational control.
- ∅ To help in strengthening the relationship and communication between superior, subordinate and Management.
- ∅ To diagnose the strengths and weaknesses of the individuals so as to identify the training and development needs of the future.
- ∅ To provide feedback to the employee regarding their past performance.
- ∅ To provide information to assist in the other personal decision in organization.
- ∅ To provide clarity of the expectations and responsibilities of the functions to be performed by the employee.
- ∅ To judge the effectiveness of the other human resource functions of the Company such as Recruitment, Selection, Training, and Development.
- ∅ To reduce the grievances of the employees.

10.4 Process of Performance Appraisal and Increment.

Appraisal will be done once in a year on the basis of performance review given by reporting manager and professional analysis done by HR Manager. During a formal performance review the following areas may be covered:

- ∅ The quality and quantity of work.
- ∅ Initiative and teamwork.
- ∅ Attendance.
- ∅ Problem solving skills.
- ∅ Strengths and areas for improvement.
- ∅ Attitude towards work.

Additional areas may also be reviewed depending upon the particular nature of the work being carried out by an employee.

The annual performance review gives an employee's reporting manager/ superiors an opportunity to suggest ways for him/ her to advance and make his/ her job at Veer IT more fulfilling.

Increment

After evaluating the performance review of an employee, his/ her entitlement to increment, if any, shall be decided by the CEO and communicated by the HR Manager via email. Employees will be given one chance to show their dissatisfaction and they can write a request email to HR Manager and reporting manager within 15 days of Appraisal being done. If required personal hearing may also be given to such an employee by the HR Manager. The request shall be reviewed by the CEO and the employee updated in case of any changes in Increment.

The employees should note that any increment/ appraisal is at the sole decision of the Company; it is not fixed or guaranteed to be provided.

10.5 Bonus Scheme(s):

For any leads that are provided by the employee's personal efforts, the following bonus structure will apply and be paid on the 3rd month of said customer or lead contract:

(a) 2% of the first year's salary - For a lead and introduction provided to the CEO – the CEO .
(b) 4% of the first year's salary - For a lead, introduction and assistance in closing said lead to become a customer with the CEO – the CEO .
(c) 10% of the first year's salary - For a lead that is closed by the employee with no assistance from the CEO.

11. Promotion Policy

The Company has a policy of providing its employees with every opportunity to advance to higher ranks within the Company. To qualify for a promotion, an employee must have held his/ her current position for a minimum of 2 (two) years. Approval of promotions depends largely upon training, experience, and performance. Promotions are made without discrimination on the basis of race, color, caste, gender, age, religion, creed, physical disability, marital status, citizenship status or political affiliation. However, the Company will continue to look outside the Company for potential employees as well.

12. Confidential Information and Intellectual Property

12.1 Confidential Information

From time to time, the employees of Veer IT may come into contact with confidential information, including but not limited to information about its suppliers, finances and business plans. Employees are required to keep any such matters that may be disclosed to them or learned by them confidential. Furthermore, any such confidential information, obtained through employment with Veer IT , must not be used by an employee for personal gain or to further an outside enterprise.

All information concerning salary, increments and other remuneration shall be construed as confidential and should not be disclosed or shared with other employees under any

12.1 Confidential Information

Any breach of the confidentiality requirements established by the Company may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with applicable policy.

12.2 Intellectual Property

Any intellectual property, such as trademarks, copyrights and patents, and any work created by an employee in the course of employment at Veer IT shall be the property of Veer IT, subject to applicable law and the terms of employment. Work includes written, creative or media work. All source material used in presentations or written documents must be appropriately acknowledged.

12.3 IT Information Storage and Security

Storage devices and Company equipment provided to employees are Company property and must be used strictly for authorized Company business. Employees are expected to follow all applicable information-security requirements.

13. Conflict of Interest

13.1 Policy

A conflict of interest arises whenever the personal, professional or business interests of an employee are potentially at odds with the best interests of Veer IT.

All employees are required to act in good faith towards Veer IT and should always act in the best interests of the Company. Employees should disclose potential conflicts and avoid situations where personal or professional interests may conflict with Company interests. Where a conflict occurs or is perceived to occur, the interests of the Company will be balanced against those of the staff member and, unless exceptional circumstances exist, resolved in favor of the Company.

It is impossible to define all potential areas of conflict of interest. If an employee is in doubt as to whether a conflict exists, they should raise the matter with their reporting manager.

13.2 Procedure

Employees must disclose potential, actual or perceived conflicts of interest to Management and cooperate in reasonable arrangements to resolve them.

- ∅ declare any potential, actual or perceived conflicts of interest that exist on becoming employed by Veer IT ;
- ∅ declare any potential, actual or perceived conflicts of interest that arise or are likely to arise during employment by Veer IT to Management;
- ∅ avoid being placed in a situation where there is potential, actual or perceived conflict of interest if at all possible.

If an employee declares such an interest, Veer IT will review the potential areas of conflict with the employee and mutually agree on practical arrangements to resolve the situation.

Employees must disclose any other employment that might cause a conflict of interest with Veer IT to their reporting manager. Where there are external involvements that do not represent a conflict of interest, these must not affect performance or attendance whilst working at Veer IT . If such involvement does affect performance or attendance, it will be considered a conflict of interest.

Employees must not set up or engage in private business or undertake any other assignment in direct or indirect competition with Veer IT using knowledge and/or materials gained during the course of employment with Veer IT for a period of at least 12 (twelve) months after leaving the employment of Veer IT .

Engaging in any other business interests during work hours will result in strong performance improvement action.

Failure to declare a potential, actual or perceived conflict of interest or to take remedial action agreed with Veer IT , in a timely manner, may result in performance improvement proceedings including dismissal.

14. Privacy

You are required to observe and uphold all of the Company's privacy policies and procedures as implemented or varied from time to time.

Collection, storage, access to and dissemination of employees' personal information will be in accordance with the principles of the applicable laws in India.

Note: If you would like any clarification of any of the policies or procedures contained within this HR Manual, please contact HR who will be glad to provide guidance and support.

Misuse of Company resources and conduct in violation of Company policy will result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Company policy, up to and including termination.

15. Sign Off

I hereby acknowledge receipt of the Veer IT HR Manual. I have read and understand the contents of it and I understand that it is my continuing responsibility to read and know its contents.

Employees Signature Sample Employee

Full Name Sample Employee

Designation Software Engineer

Date 15 Oct 2026

WISHING YOU A LONG AND REWARDING CAREER!!!

Veer IT Solutions HR Manual

Document Control

Document ID: VITS-HR-MAN-2026-001
Version: 1.0
Prepared: 15 October 2026
Approved by: HR Department
Document owner: People Operations

This training/demo copy has been prepared for the Veer IT Solutions HR Policy Bot project. It contains synthetic organization and document-control details.